Journal of Behavioral and Brain Science (JBBS) is an international journal dedicated to the latest advancement of behavioural and brain function. Articles dealing with the neuroanatomical and neurochemical basis of behavior are especially welcomed. Multidisciplinary contributions from all fields of the neurosciences are encouraged so long as emphasis is placed in investigating the biological substrates of behavior and of mental processes underlying behavior.

Subject Coverage

This journal invites original research and review papers that address the following issues in Behavioral and Brain Science. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Behavioural Science
- Cognitive Neuroscience
- Neurobiology
- Neuroimaging
- Neurology
- Neuropharmacology and Psychopharmacology
- Neurosurgery
- Neurotoxicology
- Psychiatry

We are also interested in short papers (letters) that clearly address a specific problem, and short survey or position papers that sketch the results or problems on a specific topic. Authors of selected short papers would be invited to write a regular paper on the same topic for future issues of the JBBS.

Notes for Intending Authors

Submitted papers should not have been previously published nor be currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. Paper submission will be handled electronically through the website. All papers are refereed through a peer review process. Authors are responsible for having their papers checked for style and grammar prior to submission to JBBS. For more details about the submissions, please access the website.
