Special Issue on Sex Education

Call for Papers

Sex education is instruction on issues relating to human sexuality, including emotional relations and responsibilities, human sexual anatomy, sexual activity, sexual reproduction, age of consent, reproductive health, reproductive rights, safe sex, birth control and sexual abstinence. Sex education that covers all of these aspects is known as comprehensive sex education. Common avenues for sex education are parents or caregivers, formal school programs, and public health campaigns.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on sex education. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Reproductive health education
- Birth control
- Pregnancy and education
- HIV education
- Gender issues
- Ethical issues
- Parental attitude and effects on sex education
- Family involvement in sex education
- Sexual risk prevention

Authors should read over the journal’s For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Sex Education” should be chosen during your submission.
