Special Issue on Trade in Goods and Services

Call for Papers

Trade involves the transfer of goods or services from one person or entity to another, often in exchange for money. Before the innovation of now called currency, people bartered goods and services from each other.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Trade in Goods and Services. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Fair trade
- Retail trade
- Bilateral trade
- International Trade
- Service trade
- Trade and investment
- Product cycles
- Price and demand
- Trade sanctions

Authors should read over the journal’s For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Trade in Goods and Services” should be selected during your submission.
