

Special Issue on “Exploring Changes in How the Histories and Philosophies of Sciences Have Been Written”

Exploring Changes in How the Histories of the Exact Sciences from the 18th to through the 20th Century Have Been Written: Interpreting the Dynamics of Change in these Sciences and Interrelations Amongst Them—Past Problems, Future Cures?

Keywords: Paradigms, History and Historical Epistemology of Sciences, Emergencies, Relationships, Foundations, Contingencies

AHS SPECIAL ISSUE, DETAILS

Title of the Special Issue: Exploring Changes in How the Histories of the Exact Sciences from the 18th to through the 20th Century Have Been Written: Interpreting the Dynamics of Change in these Sciences and Interrelations Amongst Them—Past Problems, Future Cures?

Paper Process: Peer-review

Guest Editors: Raffaele Pisano (University of Lille 1, France), Paolo Bussotti (Alexander von Humboldt Foundation, Germany)

Deadline to submit the paper: within 31st December 2014.

Language: English

Number of pages: The paper should be 15-20 pages included references list (in AHS Template)

Editing: Please follow guidelines within template.

Out expected: April 2015

ISSN Print: 2327-0438

ISSN Online: 2327-0446

Website: <http://www.scirp.org/journal/ahs/>

Please feel free to contact AHS Editorial Assistant (ahs@scirp.org) if you have any question.