

Special Issue on Literature and Culture Studies

Call for Papers

Literature and Culture Studies is dedicated to the study of literature, art and popular culture, which is combined with wide-ranging philosophical, political and social approaches to culture and the arts. It explores various cultures and literatures through the study of texts, either in their original language or in translation and to develop a more global consciousness and awareness through cultural literacy. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Literature and Culture Studies.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Literature and Culture Studies. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- African literature
- American literature
- Contemporary literature
- Critical and literary theory
- English literature
- Film and media studies
- Literary translation
- Literature and films
- Popular culture
- Romantics
- Renaissance literature
- Travel and culture
- Victorian literature and society
- Visual culture
- Asian literatures and cultures
- European literatures and cultures

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Literature and Culture Studies” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue Timetable:

Submission Deadline	July 22nd, 2024
Publication Date	September 2024

Guest Editor:

For further questions or inquiries, please contact Editorial Assistant at als@scirp.org.