Beijing Law Review (BLR) is an international refereed journal dedicated to the latest advancement of law. The goal of this journal is to keep a record of the state-of-the-art research and promote the research work in law and related disciplines.

Subject Coverage

All manuscripts must be prepared in English, and are subject to a rigorous and fair peer-review process. Accepted papers will immediately appear online followed by printed hard copy. The journal publishes original papers including but not limited to the following fields:

- Administrative Law
- Administrative Procedure Law
- Civil Law
- Civil Procedure Law
- Criminal Law
- Criminal Procedure Law
- Criminalistics
- Domestic Law
- Economic Law
- Environmental Law
- Financial Law
- Forensic Psychology
- Intellectual Property Law
- Interdisciplinary Subjects of Law
- Interdiscipline of Law
- International Economic Law
- Private International Law
- Public International Law
- Science of Judicial Expertise
- Theoretical Jurisprudence

We are also interested in short papers (letters) that clearly address a specific problem, and short survey or position papers that sketch the results or problems on a specific topic. Authors of selected short papers would be invited to write a regular paper on the same topic for future issues of the BLR.

Notes for Intending Authors

Submitted papers should not have been previously published nor be currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. Paper submission will be handled electronically through the website. All papers refereed through a peer review process. For more details about the submissions, please access the website.
