

Special Issue on Legal Awareness and Legal Culture

Call for Papers

Legal awareness is the empowerment of individuals regarding issues involving the law, which helps to promote consciousness of legal culture, participation in the formation of laws and the rule of law. We can spread legal awareness by educating people about their rights and duties, as well as the new laws and provisions. Legal culture is the temporary outcome of interactions and occurs pursuant to a challenge and response paradigm. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Legal Awareness and Legal Culture.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Legal Awareness and Legal Culture. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Comparative law
- European legal culture
- Foreign law
- Legal anthropology
- Legal history
- Legal knowledge
- Legal literacy
- Public legal education
- Sociology of law
- Western law

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Legal Awareness and Legal Culture” should be selected during your submission.
