

Special Issue on Public Law

Call for Papers

Public Law governs relations between legal persons and a government, between different institutions within a state, between different branches of governments, as well as relationships between persons that are of direct concern to society. It deals with issues that affect the general public or society as a whole. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Public Law.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Public Law. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Administrative law
- Business law
- Constitutional law
- Criminal law
- Energy & environmental law
- Global law
- Procedural law
- International law
- Law, ethics & public policy
- Municipal law
- Tax law

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Public Law” should be selected during your submission.
