

Special Issue on Internationalisation and Globalisation of Education

Call for Papers

In today's globalization era, knowledge is increasingly a commodity that moves between countries. The international dimension and the position of education in the global arena are given greater emphasis in international, national and institutional documents and mission statements than ever before. It helps students to develop an international awareness and intercultural skills.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring internationalisation and globalisation of education. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- International education and international curricula
- Global citizenship education
- International and national schooling system
- Globalisation of higher education
- Labour market and social mobility
- Intercultural and multicultural education

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Internationalisation and Globalisation of Education” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue timetable:
