

Special Issue on Graduate Education

Call for Papers

Graduate Education encompasses research, study and teaching beyond the bachelor's degree. While undergraduate education leads to a bachelor's degree, graduate education leads to master's degree and doctorate, also called a doctoral degree.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original researches and review articles on exploring graduate education. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- The role of graduate education in research systems
- Teacher education, professional learning and leadership
- Curriculum and pedagogy
- Innovation and technology
- Social and educational inclusion
- Trends in graduate education
- New politics of higher education
- Global higher education–international networking
- Challenges for post-graduate education
- Improving graduate education in developing countries

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal at Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue – Graduate Education” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue timetable:

Submission Deadline	October 16th, 2018
Publication Date	December 2018
