

Special Issue on Advances in Emergency Medicine

Call for Papers

Emergency medicine is the medical specialty involving the acute care of internal medical and surgical conditions. It focuses on the immediate decision making and action necessary to prevent any further hurt or death both in the pre-hospital setting by directing emergency medical technicians and in the emergency department.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Advances in Emergency Medicine. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Appendicitis
- Clinical operations
- Decision making
- Diagnostic testing
- Disaster preparedness
- Electrical injuries
- Hypertensive emergencies
- Paediatric emergencies
- Resuscitation
- Snakebite
- Toxicology
- Trauma

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Advances in Emergency Medicine” should be selected during your submission.
