

Special Issue on Prostate Cancer

Call for Papers

Prostate cancer, also known as carcinoma of the prostate, is one of the most common types of cancer in men. Symptoms may include problems passing urine, low back pain and pain with ejaculation. Risk factors for developing prostate cancer include older age, a family history of the disease, and race.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Prostate Cancer. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Aggressive prostate cancer
- Castration resistant prostate cancer
- Diet and lifestyle
- Hormone refractory prostate cancer
- Prostate biopsy
- Prostate brachytherapy
- Prostate imaging
- Radical prostatectomy
- Transurethral resection of the prostate

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Prostate Cancer” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue Timetable:
