

Special Issue on Security Software

Call for Papers

This special issue on “Security Software” will be focusing on the latest development in computer software technology. Security software is a tool for remove the danger code, including viruses and Trojans, etc. Security software is divided into antivirus software, system tools, and anti-rogue software. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in this area of security software.

In this special issue, we invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles that explore security software. In this special issue, potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Security software and firewall
- Network security, monitors, and repairs
- Intrusion prevention system and intrusion detection system
- Cloud computing and grid computing
- Spam mail
- Malicious code and software

Authors should read over the journal’s Authors’ Guidelines carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly note that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title should be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Security Software” should be selected during your submission.

Also please note the following timetable:

Submission Deadline	July 10th, 2014
Publication Date	September 2014

Guest Editor:

For further questions or inquiries
Please contact Editorial Assistant at jsea@scirp.org