

Special Issue on Nationalism and Transnationalism

Call for Papers

Nationalism is a modern movement, which based on the premise that the individual's loyalty and devotion to the nation-state surpass other individual or group interests. Transnationalism refers to the diffusion and extension of social, political, economic processes in between and beyond the sovereign jurisdictional boundaries of nation-states. The goal of this Special Issue is to provide a platform for scientists worldwide to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of nationalism and transnationalism.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring nationalism and transnationalism. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- National identity
- Ethnicity, race and nationalism
- Migration and transnationalism
- Diaspora and transnationalism
- Economic globalization
- Transnationalization of the state, classes, politics and culture

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Nationalism and Transnationalism” should be selected during your submission.
