

Special Issue on Anti-terrorism Research

Call for Papers

With the increasing harmfulness of terrorism, peace and security in the international community have been seriously threatened. International terrorism as the most typical non-traditional security threats, which advocated the logic and behavior, no matter for what purpose, is against humanity and has a profound impact on the transformation of the international system and international order reconstruction. In view of the current international anti-terrorism needs, the study of anti-terrorism theory and its governance have gradually become a hot topic of international political studies.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original researches and review articles on exploring anti-terrorism research. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Historical causes of terrorism
- Status quo of terrorism
- Intelligence and anti-terrorism
- Anti-terrorism legislation research
- Safeguard mechanism of anti-terrorism organizations
- Terrorism psychology
- Terrorism and Politics

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Anti-terrorism Research” should be chosen during your submission.

According to the following timetable:

Submission Deadline	October 11th, 2017
Publication Date	December 2017

Guest Editor:

For further questions or inquiries
Please contact Editorial Assistant at jss@scirp.org