
Special Issue on Social Welfare: Politics and Public Policy

Call for Papers

Social welfare refers to the social security system that the state provides all citizens with funds and services to ensure a certain standard of living and maximize the quality of life. General social welfare mainly refers to social services and facilities. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Social Welfare: Politics and Public Policy.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Social Welfare: Politics and Public Policy. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Political culture of social welfare policy
- Social welfare policy
- Economic growth and declining social welfare
- The elderly, women and children's welfare
- Education welfare
- The impact of social welfare policies on social development
- Private welfare and public welfare
- Cash welfare assistance

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Social Welfare: Politics and Public Policy” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue Timetable:

| | |
|---------------------|-----------------|
| Submission Deadline | June 30th, 2020 |
| Publication Date | August 2020 |

Guest Editor:

For further questions or inquiries, please contact Editorial Assistant at jss@scirp.org.