Special Issue on Security Studies

Call for Papers

Security studies is a multidisciplinary field that examines and analyzes issues related to security in both national and international contexts. It focuses on understanding the causes, dynamics, and consequences of various security threats, such as armed conflicts, terrorism, nuclear proliferation, cyber warfare, and the emergence of new security challenges. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Security Studies.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Security Studies. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:
