

Special Issue on Agriculture & Animal Science

Call for Papers

"Agriculture & Animal Science" is an academic topic that encompasses the study of agricultural practices and the science of animals. It involves exploring sustainable methods of crop production, soil management, and plant protection, while also delving into the biology, behavior, and welfare of domestic animals. This field bridges the gap between natural science and applied agriculture, seeking to enhance food production efficiency while safeguarding the environment and animal health. It plays a crucial role in addressing global challenges related to food security, environmental sustainability, and animal welfare.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Agriculture & Animal Science. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Animal genetics and breeding
- Animal care & management
- Animal behavior & well-being
- Animal breeding and genetic
