

Special Issue on Occupational Health and Safety

Call for Papers

Occupational health and safety is a multidisciplinary field concerned with the safety, health, and welfare of people at work, devoted to the prevention and management of occupational and environmental injury, illness and disability, and promotion of health and productivity of workers, their families and communities.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Occupational Health and Safety. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Workplace fatality and injury management
- Occupational diseases
- Occupational epidemiology
- Occupational therapy
- Pain management
- Environmental and occupational health
- Occupational exposures to hazards
- Risk assessment and prevention
- Occupational stress and mental health
- Public health policy and health promotion
- Cancer risk and treatment
- Quality of life

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Occupational Health and Safety” should be chosen during your submission.

According to the following timetable:

Submission Deadline	February 15th, 2021
Publication Date	April 2021
