Open Journal of Political Science (OJPS) is an international journal dedicated to the latest advancement of political science. The goal of this journal is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in different areas of political science.

Editorial Board

Dr. Catherine Langlois

Georgetown University, USA

Subject Coverage

This journal invites original research and review papers that address the following issues in political science. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Comparative politics
- International relations
- Political theory
- Political methodology
- Public administration
- Public law
- Public policy

We are also interested in short papers (letters) that clearly address a specific problem, and short survey or position papers that sketch the results or problems on a specific topic. Authors of selected short papers would be invited to write a regular paper on the same topic for future issues of the OJPS.

Notes for Intending Authors

Submitted papers should not have been previously published nor be currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. Paper submission will be handled electronically through the website. All papers are refereed through a peer review process. For more details about the submissions, please access the website.
