

Special Issue on Globalization and Sovereignty

Call for Papers

Globalization represents the reality that we live in a time when the walls of sovereignty are no protection against the movements of capital, labor, information and ideas, nor can they provide effective protection against harm and damage. The goal of this Special Issue is to provide a platform for scientists worldwide to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of globalization and sovereignty.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring globalization and sovereignty. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Sovereign equality
- International law and politics
- Human rights and global governance
- Sovereignty in the context of globalization
- Constitutionalism and political form
- Legitimacy reconsidered

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Globalization and Sovereignty” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue timetable:

Submission Deadline	October 31st, 2016
Publication Date	December 2016
