Special Issue on Applied Psychology

Call for Papers

Applied psychology is a field that focuses on putting practical research into action. It is the use of psychological methods and findings to solve practical problems of human and animal behavior and experience.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Applied Psychology. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Marriage and family life
- Psychological health and wellness
- Counseling techniques
- Psychology in the workplace
- Environmental psychology
- Educational psychology

Authors should read over the journal’s For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Applied Psychology” should be selected during your submission.
