Special Issue on Animal Husbandry

Call for Papers

Animal Husbandry is a branch of agriculture concerned with the domestication of, care for and breeding of animals such as dogs, cattle, horses, sheep, goats, pigs and other like creatures. The subject covers a wide range of activities, including care and grooming, livestock farming, accommodation and hygiene. The study also overlaps with many other disciplines, such as agriculture, veterinary science and genetics.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Animal Husbandry. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Animal reproduction and breeding
- Livestock production systems and management
- Nutrition and physiology
- Veterinary medicine and nursing
- Hybridization and genetic engineering
- Biotechnology in Animal Husbandry
- Environmental impact of livestock
- Animal behavior
- Animal welfare

Authors should read over the journal’s For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Animal Husbandry” should be chosen during your submission.
