Special Issue on Financial Crisis

Call for Papers

A financial crisis is any of a broad variety of situations in which some financial assets suddenly lose a large part of their nominal value. Financial crises directly result in a loss of paper wealth but do not necessarily result in significant changes in the real economy.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Financial Crisis. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Economic recessions
- International financial crisis
- Strategic complementarities
- Debt crisis
- Banking crisis
- Market Crisis
- Inflation
- Impacts and influences
- Coping strategy and regulation
- Challenge and innovation
- Risk analysis

Authors should read over the journal’s For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Financial Crisis” should be chosen during your submission.
