Special Issue on Social Justice

Call for Papers

Social Justice refers to a political and philosophical theory that focuses on the concept of fairness in relations between individuals in society and equal access to wealth, opportunities, and social privileges. The goal of this issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Social Justice.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Social Justice. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Educational Resources
- Competitive Opportunity
- Racism
- Sexism
- Economic Difference
- Electoral Rights
- Health Insurance

Authors should read over the journal’s For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Social Justice” should be selected during your submission.
