

Special Issue on Higher Education

Call for Papers

This special issue on “Higher Education” examines educational developments throughout the world in universities, polytechnics, colleges, and vocational and education institutions. It reports on developments in both public and private higher education sectors. While each higher education system has its own distinctive features, common problems and issues are shared internationally by researchers, teachers and institutional leaders. Higher Education offers opportunities for the exchange of research results, experience and insights, and provides a forum for ongoing discussion between experts.

In this special issue, we are going to invite front-line researchers and authors to contribute original research and review articles on higher education. The topics to be covered by this special issue include, but are not limited to:

- Educational developments in higher education
- Higher education policies and practices
- System reforms of higher education
- Governance in higher education
- Employment and career development of college students
- New information technology and education

Authors should read over the journal’s Authors’ Guidelines carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue - Higher Education” should be chosen during your submission.

According to the following timetable:

Manuscript Deadline	August 12th, 2014
Publication Date	October 2014
