

Special Issue on Ethics Education

Call for Papers

Organizations and society at large recognize that ethically and socially responsible behavior plays an important role in good professional practices. This realization has led people to expect and demand that schools facilitate the training of students in ethics and social responsibility. It deals with ethical issues raised by medicine, life sciences, and associated technologies as applied to human beings, taking into account our social, legal, and environmental dimensions.

For this special issue, we invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles exploring the various elements of ethics education. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Assessment of ethics education
- Method of ethics education
- Curriculum development for ethics education
- Value of ethics education
- Society responsibility and ethics education
- Application of ethics education in different science
- Ethics education and globalization

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Ethics Education” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue timetable:

Submission Deadline	December 31st, 2015
Publication Date	February 2016
