ETSN is an international refereed journal dedicated to publishing state-of-the-art research in the field of e-health applications in telecommunication systems and networks. The journal focuses on systems, algorithms, and applications of e-health and medical telecommunications. ETSN publishes original research as well as review papers in the following areas:

- Biomedical communications
- Biomedical sensors and instrumentation
- Biomedical signal processing
- Body area and sensor networks
- Clinical ICT application
- Collaborative technologies in e-health and telemedicine systems
- Consumer health informatics
- E-health and m-health systems
- E-health in public health
- Grids
- Healthcare applications
- Healthcare information systems
- Healthcare systems and services in transition: e-health, telemedicine and conditions for innovation
- Medical informatics
- Patient pathways and coordinated care
- Prevention and self-management
- Security and privacy issues of e-health systems
- Wearable sensors and systems
- Wireless communications and mobility

We are also interested in: 1) Short Reports—2-5 page papers where an author can either present an idea with theoretical background but has not yet completed the research needed for a complete paper or preliminary data; 2) Book Reviews—Comments and critiques.

What is SCIRP?
Scientific Research Publishing (SCIRP) is one of the largest Open Access journal publishers. It is currently publishing more than 200 open access, online, peer-reviewed journals covering a wide range of academic disciplines. SCIRP serves the worldwide academic communities and contributes to the progress and application of science with its publication.

What is Open Access?
All original research papers published by SCIRP are made freely and permanently accessible online immediately upon publication. To be able to provide open access journals, SCIRP defrays operation costs from authors and subscription charges only for its printed version. Open access publishing allows an immediate, worldwide, barrier-free, open access to the full text of research papers, which is in the best interests of the scientific community.

- High visibility for maximum global exposure with open access publishing model
- Rigorous peer review of research papers
- Prompt faster publication with less cost
- Guaranteed targeted, multidisciplinary audience
