

Special Issue on Complementary and Alternative Medicine

Call for Papers

Alternative medicine is the practice that claims to have the healing effect of medicine but is disproven, unproven, impossible to prove, or is excessively harmful in relation to its effect. When used together with functional traditional treatment, it is called complementary medicine or integrative medicine.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Complementary and Alternative Medicine. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Acupuncture
- Adjuvant therapy
- Brachytherapy
- Chiropractic
- Herbal therapy
- Hormone therapy
- Meditative therapy
- Naturopathy
- Photodynamic therapy

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Complementary and Alternative Medicine” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue Timetable:
