

Special Issue on Skin Health

Call for Papers

Skin health refers to the overall well-being and condition of the skin, which is the largest organ of the body. It encompasses maintaining a balanced and healthy skin barrier, preventing and managing skin conditions, and promoting the aesthetic appearance of the skin. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Skin Health.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Skin Health. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Scleroderma
- Erythematosis
- Psoriasis
- Pemphigus
- Eczema
- Dermatitis
- Urticaria
- Skin care
- Skin diseases
- Skin allergies
- Melanoma
- Psoriasis
- Pigmentation

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Skin Health” should be selected during your submission.
