

Special Issue on Ethnic and Cultural Studies

Call for Papers

Cultural and Ethnic Studies is the comparative analyses of racial and ethnic groups, interpretations of cultural practices, examination of biases and exploration of a broad vision of a society, with enhanced awareness of embedded beliefs and stereotypes regarding race, gender, ethnicity, class, disability, and sexuality. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Ethics Studies.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Ethnic and Cultural Studies. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Colonialism
- Cross-cultural perspectives
- Cultural interpretation
- Ethical and historical studies
- Ethical movement
- Ethnic diversity
- Identities and representation
- Minority studies
- Race and ethnic relations
- Religious studies
- State, inequality and resistance

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Ethnic and Cultural Studies” should be selected during your submission.
