

Special Issue on Credit

Call for Papers

Credit is a contractual agreement in which a borrower receives something of value now and agrees to repay the lender at some date in the future, generally with interest. The term also refers to the borrowing capacity of an individual or company.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original researches and review articles on exploring credit. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Types of credit
- Bonds, borrowing, and lending
- Bank runs
- Bankruptcy
- Credit to GDP and the policy environment
- The role of credit in crises
- Credit as an early warning indicator
- Property prices and financial liberalization

Authors should read over the journal's Authors' Guidelines carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal at Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue – Credit” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue timetable:

Submission Deadline	October 28th, 2016
Publication Date	December 2016
