

Special Issue on Sustainability Science

Call for Papers

Sustainability Science probes interactions between global, social, and human systems, the complex mechanisms that lead to degradation of these systems, and concomitant risks to human well-being. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Sustainability Science.

In this special issue, we invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles that explore Sustainability Science. In this special issue, potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Environmental sustainability and applications
- Social ecology and sustainability
- Economic and business aspects of sustainability
- Sustainable Engineering and Science
- Energy sustainability
- Sustainable urban and rural development
- Sustainable agriculture
- Sustainable education and approaches
- Tourism, culture, and heritage

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Sustainability Science” should be selected during your submission.
