
Special Issue on Corporate Finance and Governance

Call for Papers

Corporate finance and governance refers to the system by which corporations are financed, directed and controlled. The governance structure specifies the distribution of rights and responsibilities among different participants in the corporation and specifies the rules and procedures for making decisions in corporate affairs.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Corporate Finance and Governance. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Managerial behavior and firm performance
- Corporate governance policy
- Financial optimization
- Global business environment
- Emerging markets and corporate strategy
- International business management
- Investment strategy
- Stakeholder roles and responsibilities
- Managerial and decision economics
- Mergers & acquisitions
- Corporate entrepreneurship
- Corporate social responsibility
- Corporate value
- Integration of production
- Sustainability and profitability
- Property rights
- Business impact of the coronavirus
- Risk management

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Corporate Finance and Governance” should be chosen during your submission.
