

Special Issue on Ethics Studies

Call for Papers

Ethics Studies is a branch of philosophy that deals with what is good and bad and with moral duty and obligation. It seeks to resolve questions of human morality by defining concepts such as good and evil, right and wrong, virtue and vice, justice and crime. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Ethics Studies.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Ethics Studies. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Attitudes
- Beliefs
- Epistemology
- Ethical and historical studies
- Ethical movement
- Fairness
- Justification
- Morality
- Realism
- Religious studies
- Skepticism
- Virtue ethics

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Ethics Studies” should be selected during your submission.
