Call for Papers

Banking is an industry that handles cash, credit, and other financial transactions. “Economics, banking and Finance” focuses on the economic analysis of financial and banking issues.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Economics, Banking and Finance. Potential topics include, but are not limited to

- Banking and financial markets
- Capital structure and market
- Credit and loans
- Portfolio management
- Cash management
- Central bank intervention and policy
- Macroeconomics and monetary policy
- Asset pricing
- Banking systems
- Bank financial model
- Effects on economic growth
- Risk management
- Financial crisis and banking regulation
- Global economic challenges

Authors should read over the journal’s For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal’s Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Economics, Banking and Finance” should be chosen during your submission.
