

Special Issue on Accounting and Finance

Call for Papers

Accounting is the measurement, processing, and communication of financial information about economic entities such as businesses and corporations. Financial accounting concerns with the summary, analysis and reporting of financial transactions related to a business.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Accounting and Finance. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Accounting theory and analysis
- Accounting, finance and mathematics
- Accounting and financial management
- Accounting analysis of economic policy
- Accounting and stock market performance
- Accounting for investments
- Accounting and banking
- Tax & accounting
- International finance and accounting
- Accounting and risk management
- Accounting and sustainable development
- Corporate finance and accounting
- Accounting regulation

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Accounting and Finance” should be chosen during your submission.
