

Special Issue on Stock Market and Behavioral Finance

Call for Papers

The stock market refers to the collection of markets and exchanges where the regular activities of buying, selling and issuance of shares of publicly held companies take place. Such financial activities are conducted through institutionalized formal exchanges or over-the-counter (OTC) marketplaces which operate under the defined set of regulations.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Stock Market and Behavioral Finance. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Stock market analysis
- Stock market prediction
- Stock market liquidity
- Stock returns and volatility
- Stock market valuation
- Stock price behavior
- Investment behavior
- Stock market crash
- International stock market behavior
- Stock market and macroeconomic behavior
- Monetary policy and stock market
- Portfolio optimization
- Market share and firm performance

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Stock Market and Behavioral Finance” should be chosen during your submission.
