Special Issue on Accounting, Auditing and Taxation

Call for Papers

Accounting, Auditing, and Taxation is an academic topic that focuses on the measurement, recording, analysis, and reporting of financial information. It encompasses the principles and practices of accounting, including financial accounting, managerial accounting, and cost accounting. Auditing, on the other hand, deals with the verification and examination of financial statements to ensure their accuracy and compliance with accounting standards. Taxation studies the laws and regulations governing the assessment and collection of taxes. This field of study plays a vital role in ensuring transparency, financial accountability, and compliance with tax regulations for individuals and organizations.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Accounting, Auditing and Taxation. Potential topics include, but are not limited to

- Financial accounting
- Managerial accounting
